

FACT-2

Australia has the world's slowest gaming machines

Australia has the world's slowest gaming machines.

All machines in Australia and New Zealand have a reel spin of about 3 seconds. During the reel spin, the player is not able to interrupt the machine. Everywhere else in the world, the player can interrupt the reel spin by re-pressing the PLAY button – which shortens the reel spin to potentially less than one-tenth of a second.

www.gamingta.com